Delays Continue to Dog Bosnian Counter-Terrorism Policy – BIRN

m January 20, 2021

According to BIRN, BiH lags behind the rest of the region in terms of its anti-terrorism strategy, including how to handle fighters returning from wars abroad.

railing its Western Balkan peers, Bosnia has yet to prepare a report on the implementation of its five-year counter-terrorism strategy, which expired in late 2020, nor has it begun drafting a new strategy, continuing the delays that have dogged counter-terrorism policy in the country.
